

Holistic Health Fair

For Practitioners, Vendors, Educators, Performers and Artists

What is the event?

Gainesville Holistic Health Fair!

When is it?

Saturday, January 30th, 2010

7:00 am to 7:00 pm

Open to the public 10:00 am to 5:00 pm

Where is it?

United Church of Gainesville

1624 NW 5th Avenue

(corner of NW 17th St. & 5th Ave.)

How much does it cost?

$35 for vendors

$25 for practitioners to reserve space

$10 for half-table for nonprofit information providers

What do I get?

- Table and chairs if you request them.
- Space is generally approximately 8x10 feet, but can be more if you bring your own tent and tables.
- Access to electrical outlet if needed. Note: No type of amplified or electronic sound is allowed.
- Visitors who are interested in, but may be unfamiliar with, alternative medicine. Potential new customers.
- Nourishing traditional food prepared and served on-site for purchase, and a pleasant dining area.
- Live music, art, and entertainment pertinent to health of body, mind, and spirit will be provided at the site to create a positive atmosphere and attract visitors to the Health Fair.
- Children's programs, workshops, and discussions will be offered throughout the day, so whole families can attend the health fair.

What do I charge?

Your choice for vendor items.

Practitioners charge $20 for a session, which lasts between 10 and 30 minutes.

What are my choices for placement?

- Indoors in a large communal room where there will be information booths, vendors, and practitioners working.
- Outdoors in the courtyard of the church. Additional space is available in the back playground.
- Children's programs, workshops, and discussions can be held in conference rooms or the courtyard.

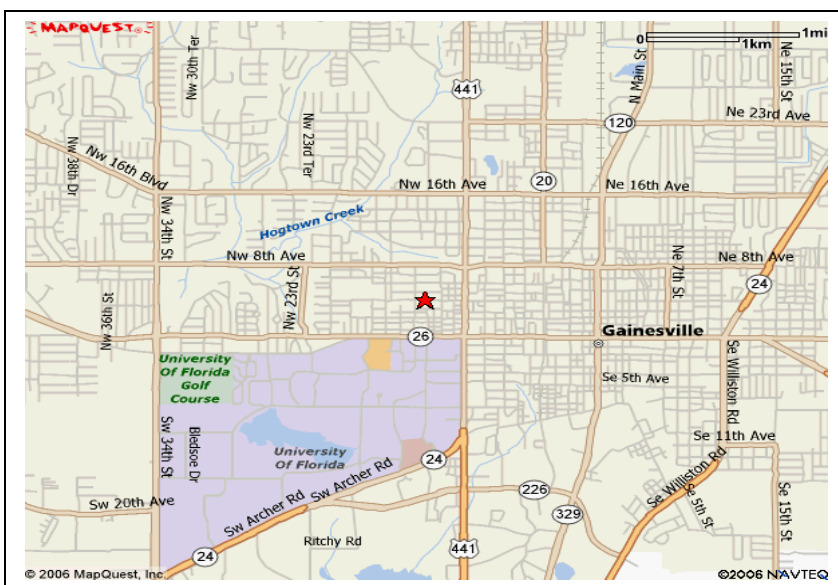

How do I reserve my space?

First, email or call Maria to let her know what you plan to do, so we can avoid conflicts. Then download the appropriate form from the website, fill it out, and mail to Maria Minno with your check (if applicable). Applications are due before January 15th, 2010. Be sure your contact information is correct and legible! If you are a performer, artist, or educator, no fees will be charged, but you must confirm your spot by January 1st so that we can post our schedule of events.

We will send you special instructions shortly before the fair. Please read them carefully.
